Disclaimer: Agreement of Conditions

1. I understand that the Body Mirror System training (or Vision Training), which I attend of my own free will, uses powerful tools intended to change consciousness. I assume full responsibility for my participation in this experience, as well as for all of the effects resulting from this participation. I therefore release from all such responsibility the organizer(s) of this event, the instructor, the Brofman Foundation for the Advancement of Healing, and Martin Brofman.
2. I understand that no medical treatment, medical diagnosis, or medical advice is given, and that no such medical treatment, medical diagnosis, or medical advice is any part of this training.
3. I understand that no guarantee of results is given or implied. I understand that this training is a presentation of tools intended to be used as a possible means of obtaining the desired results of a return to wellness, as well as a presentation of instructions in the use of these tools, and their practical application.
4. I understand that I am free to leave the training at any moment.
5. I understand that participation in each of the exercises is a necessary prerequisite for continuing the participation in this training, and that uninterrupted presence is a necessary prerequisite for the completion of the experience. Non-participation in any of the exercises or any part of the presentation is thus equivalent to immediate resignation from the class, and is also grounds for immediate dismissal from the remainder of the training.
6. I understand that my participation and my uninterrupted presence in this training is always subject to the approval of the instructor of this training.
